Shri M.P.S. Bhatia, Panel Lawyer for the State/applicants.

None for the respondent.

Heard and perused the application.

It has been mentioned in the application that on account of preparation of Assembly elections, the representation could not be decided within a period of 30 days.

The order impugned was passed on 29-8-2003 and the petitioner – B.K. Tiwari (respondent herein) was allowed ten days time to file representation, that was required to be filed on or before 9-9-2003 and thereafter the representation was required to be decided by 9-10-2003 whereas the Assembly elections were in the last week of November, 2003, therefore, there is no justification in the prayer made for.

Accordingly, the M.C.C. requires to be dismissed and it is accordingly dismissed.
